nal Difficulty — School Common ent; Address Delivered by Bishop Kean—Personal Intelligence.

PETERBURG, June 18, 1886.
The Norfolk and Western Railroad Duppany have ordered the erection of handsome new passenger-depót building in this city, and the work will be commenced as soon as the plans have been completed. The building will becupy the aite of the present depót, but will be of brick and a much larger, and more commodious handsomer, and more commodious structure than the present one. The plans will probably be ready by the lat of July. It is understood that a pertion of the building will be occupied by the Atlantic Coast-Line for passenger

A personal difficulty occurred this morning between Major Thomas H. Bend, collector of city taxes, and Mr. W. Irving Smith, collector of delinquent taxes, growing out of differences about the sale of delinquent property. about the sale of delinquent property.

Blows were passed, but the gentlemen were separated before either had been injured. They were taken before Justice Olivier, who required them to give bond in the sum of $500 each to keep tice Olivier, who required them to give bond in the sum of $500 each to keep the peace. Subsequently Mr. Smith was also struck by Mr. Hunter Bond, son of Major Bond. He was also immediately put under bonds. The affair has caused a good deal of comment on the streets to-day.

The closing exercises of St. Joseph's Catholic School took place to-day in the presence of a crowded assemblage. Bishop Keane was present and delivered an address. The occasion was one of much interest, and many beautiful

DANVILLE, June 18, 1886.
Mr. J. H. Schoolfield, president of the Danville and New River Railroad, has saked the counsel to suspend collection of its interest claims for three years, and accept in lieu thereof the promissory notes of the company, psyable five years from date of said interest claims. The counsel has agreed to do so on condition that Mr. Schooles of the Hichmond Dis terest claims. The counsel has agreed to do so on condition that Mr. School-field or some man equally as acceptable to the city shall be president of the road for five years. The company also asks the Western Division bondholders to suspend collection of half their interest claims for a term of years upon some conditions as above.

The Trucking Season-The Pr

JUNE 18, 1886. The fleet of the Old Dominion Steam-ship Company now running between Norfolk and New York consists of eight steamers a week, and they go out load-ed as deep as possible with nothing but green truck, the non-perishable freight green truck, the non-perishable freight being allowed to accumulate in the warehouses until it can be forwarded. It is now the height of the truck-ship-ping season, and the business along the wharves is simply amazing. The crops of everything are immense.

Brilliant Wedding-Education-County Roads-Other Matters. Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch)

LOUISA C. H., June 18, 1886. The Disciples' church at this place vas the scene of a brilliant wedding last evening, the contracting parties being our popular and universally-be-loved county judge, W. S. Gooch, and Miss Mary Stuart Anderson, a charming young lady of Louisa. Rev. L. A. Cutler, of Richmond, performed the ceremony in an exceedingly felicitous manner, and Professor William Bolling presided at the organ, and rendered a wedding march in fine style. The wedding march in the style. The church, which was appropriately and handsomely decorated for the occasion and presented a beautiful scene, was filled to overflowing. That Louisa is not behind the spirit is evinced by the existence at this place and one male academy—the principals of the two former being respectively Miss B. G. Winston and Charles Goodlice, Esq., and of the latter Rev. Z. P. Richardson. The seminaries recently had public commencement exercises, which were creditable to the schools and enjoyable to the public.

(By telegraph to the Dispatch.)

ET. JOSEPH, Mo., June 18.—At 11 o'clock this morning, as Colonel J. W.
Strong, manager of the Herald,
was sitting in the counting-room
with his back to the door, Dr.
S. A. Richmond entered, and, drawing a revolver, fired. The shot struck the victim in the left side of the neck.
Strong staggered towards the back of-Strong staggered towards the back of-fice; Richmond fired two more shots, and Strong fell. Richmond then turned, walked outside, and when some twenty feet from the door placed the revolver to his temple, fired, and dropped to the side-walk. At the time of the shooting Strong was engaged in conversation with an unknown man, and was totally unconscious of the approach of an enemy until he was struck by the bullet.
Richmond drove up to the office in his carriage. He is said to have alighted coolly and walked to the Herald officedoor without exhibiting any signs of excitement. When he came back after shooting Strong he found that the carriage had been driven away, and it was then he shot himself.

Strong fell, struck by two bullets, one of which struck him in the neck, ranging up into the brain; the other in the back, and is believed to have penetrated his heart. He died in five minutes after the first shot. Richmond's bullet took effect in the left temple, and as yet it is impossible to tell whether it will prove fatal or not. The trouble which has resulted so fatally is solely of Richmend's own making. He has long been known as the discoverer and manufacturer of the Samaritan Nervine, and has been an extensive advertiser, and has had an enormous business in his nostrum. Some five months ago he disappeared from this community and left a lot of papers, evidently the work of either a knave or a hopeless lunatic. He charged Colonel Strong and other prominent attorneys of this city with having ruined him, and in-dicated that he had ended his career on the river. At that time opinions differed as to his condition, ome regarding him insane and others believing him simply making a ruse to obtain the $85,000 insurance on his life. Since then he had become hopelessly insane. The deed of to-day proved his lunacy beyond a doubt. Colonel Strong leaves a large fam-ily, consisting of a wife and three sons, the eldest of whom is John P. Strong, editor-in-chief of the Herald. Colonel Strong was 61 years old, a lawyer by profession, and a man who has been very prominent in the Republican party Northwest Missouri for nearly Jacksonville, Ill., where he had a large number of friends and relatives.
